VAC 12

SPINAL CORD

INJURY

REHABILITATION

Mahatma Gandhi occupational Therapy College
Value Added Courses

Course Name: Spinal Cord Injury Rehabilitation

Contact Hours- 20

COURSE SYLLABUS

Course Objectives
1. Better understanding of Spinal cord injury along with assessment and management.
2. Focus on various advanced techniques used in management of spinal cord injury.
3. Current trends and evidence based practice to promote the highest standard of care in the practice of spinal cord injury.
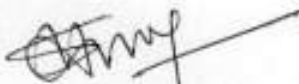

Course Highlights

1. Hands on training on ICU management, bed mobility skills, basic wheelchair skills, hydrotherapy and gait training.
2. Demonstration of latest surgical procedures.
3. Renowned National and International faculty.
4. One-to-one discussion with SCI patients.
5. Case presentations and projects submission.
6. Course material for each module would be given to each student.
7. Includes certification for basic wheelchair skill and lifetime membership of spinal cord society.
8. Practical demonstration of orthotic Rehabilitation after SCI.
9. Qualifying examination for certification of fellowship.

Hand Rehabilitation

Course objectives
1. Focus on expertise in hand rehabilitation in various conditions.
2. A deeper understanding of conditions pertaining to hand, and the ability to perform appropriate assessment and implementation of treatment plan.

Course Highlights

Convener
Committee of Courses
Occupational Therapy
MGUMST, JAIPUR

1. Live demonstration on patients.
2. National /International faculty.
3. Hands-on training on advanced splinting techniques.
4. Myoelectric and advanced prosthetic management.
5. Recent advance in management of spastic hand.
6. Seminars and case presentations.
7. Soft tissue manipulation and neural mobilization, taping techniques on hand
8. Course material.
9. Qualifying examination for certification of course.

Course Co-ordinator
MGOTC

Convener
Committee of Courses
Occupational Therapy
MGUMST, JAIPUR